fil. 14. H. 1790

To the Honorable William Paca Esquire Judge of the Federal Court of the United States for the District of Maryland -

The Sebel of Henry Herman, Frederick Weakin & Anthony Martins all of Baltimore County humbly sheweth That your Sebellants On the _____ day of September in the Year Twentien Hundred and Eighty Nine did as seamen ship themselves at the City of Amsterdam ^{to wit} ^{of the High Seas} ^{of the Coast} ^{and within the Jurisdiction} board the Brig Prudentia now riding at Anchor in the Port of Baltimore, whereof a Certain J. B. Ceket is Master to perform a Voyage under certain Articles now in the Possession of the Captain - That your Sebellants so shipp'd as aforesaid, did ^{perform} the Voyage afo from the City of Amsterdam, to Boud'aux in France and from thence to this Port - That On the Arrival of the said Brig Prudentia at this Port your Sebellants conceiving themselves entitled to the Whole or some Part of their Wages then due, demanded the same of the Captain ~~or such Part as he might~~ who informed them, that he shou'd pay them nothing, but if they thought themselves injured, they might apply to the Laws of this Country for their Redup - That your Sebellants came On shore from time to time for the Purpose aforesaid but were prevented from Day to day by the Intercession of the Captain from immediately taking such steps as would secure them the full amount of their Wages - That your Subellants being informed of the Delay and Expence attending such suit for the recovery of their Wages returned to the ship and again offered to sail in the said Brig to their respective Duties On Board, but the Captain refused to admit them on Board and finally dismissed them - That your Subellants being so dismissed and discharged from On Board the Brig aforesaid then demanded of the Captain the full amount of their Wages - That at the Time of the Dismissal and discharge your Subellants had due and Owning them for Wages as seamen aforesaid on Board the said Brig Prudentia three several ~~particular~~ sums of Money to wit to your Subellant Henry Harmon the sum of Current Money; To your Subellant, Frederick Weaker the Sum of Current Money To your Subellant Anthony Martins the sum of Current Money; which said several sums of Money the Captain of the said Brig

Prudentia hath refused to pay to you Sebillants altho after threunto requested) to wit at Baltimore County aforesaid Wherefor you Sebillants praye your Honor to issue attachment against the said ~~Sebillants~~ Brig Prudentia her Tackles apparel and furniture and that the same may be sold pursuant to the Decree of this Court to pay and satisfy to you Sebillants their Wages aforesaid of you Sebillants wile praye &c

R. Moale pro Sebillants.
